DRAFT REPORT OF THE
CALIFORNIA LAW REVISION COMMISSION
ON CHAPTER ____ OF THE STATUTES OF 2021
(ASSEMBLY BILL 473)

California Public Records Act Clean-Up

Chapter ____ of the Statutes of 2021 was introduced as Assembly Bill 473, authored by Assembly Member Ed Chau. The legislation implements the Law Revision Commission’s recommendation on California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The revised Comments set out below supersede the comparable Comments in the recommendation. The revisions update references to the “CPRA Recodification Act of 2020.”

Gov’t Code § 7920.100. Nonsubstantive reform

Comment. Section 7920.100 is new. It is modeled on Penal Code Section 16005. It makes clear that the CPRA Recodification Act of 2021 has no substantive impact. The act is intended solely to make the California Public Records Act more user-friendly. For background, see California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

For specific guidance on the impact of a judicial decision interpreting a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.110. For specific guidance on the impact of an Attorney General opinion interpreting a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.115. For specific guidance on the impact of a judicial decision or Attorney General opinion assessing the constitutionality of a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.120.

See Sections 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2021”), 7920.530 (“public records”).

Gov’t Code § 7920.105. Continuation of existing law

Comment. Section 7920.105 is new. Subdivision (a) is similar to Section 2, which is a standard provision found in many codes. See, e.g., Bus. & Prof. Code § 2; Corp. Code § 2; Fam. Code § 2; Penal Code §§ 5, 16010(a); Prob. Code § 2(a); Veh. Code § 2.

Subdivision (b) is drawn from Section 9604 and Penal Code Section 16010(b).

Subdivision (c) is drawn from Family Code Section 2 and Penal Code Section 16010(c).

See Section 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2021”).

Gov’t Code § 7920.110. Judicial decision interpreting former law

Comment. Section 7920.110 is new. It is modeled on Penal Code Section 16020.

Subdivision (a) makes clear that case law construing a predecessor provision is relevant in construing its successor in the CPRA Recodification Act of 2021.

Subdivisions (b) and (c) make clear that in recodifying former Sections 6250-6276.48, the Legislature has not taken any position on any case interpreting any of those provisions.

For specific guidance on the impact of an Attorney General opinion interpreting a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.115. For specific guidance on the impact of a judicial decision or Attorney General opinion assessing the constitutionality of a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.120. For general guidance on the nonsubstantive impact of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2021, see Section 7920.100.

See Section 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2021”).

Gov’t Code § 7920.115. Attorney General opinion interpreting former law

Comment. Section 7920.115 is new. It is comparable to Section 7920.110, but it pertains to Attorney General opinions rather than judicial decisions.

Subdivision (a) makes clear that Attorney General opinions construing a predecessor provision are relevant in construing its successor in the CPRA Recodification Act of 2021.

Subdivisions (b) and (c) make clear that in recodifying former Sections 6250-6276.48, the Legislature has not taken any position on any Attorney General opinion interpreting any of those provisions.

For specific guidance on the impact of a judicial decision interpreting a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.110. For specific guidance on the impact of a judicial decision or Attorney General opinion assessing the constitutionality of a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.120. For general guidance on the nonsubstantive impact of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2021, see Section 7920.100.

See Section 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2021”).

Gov’t Code § 7920.120. Constitutionality

Comment. Section 7920.120 is new. It is modeled on Penal Code Section 16025. Due to the prevalence and significant impact of Attorney General opinions on CPRA issues, the section expressly refers to Attorney General opinions as well as judicial decisions.

Subdivision (a) makes clear that case law and Attorney General opinions on the constitutionality of a predecessor provision are relevant in determining the constitutionality of its successor in the CPRA Recodification Act of 2021.

Subdivisions (b) and (c) make clear that in recodifying former Sections 6250-6276.48, the Legislature has not taken any position on the constitutionality of any of those provisions.

For specific guidance on the impact of a judicial decision interpreting a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.110. For specific guidance on the impact of an Attorney General opinion interpreting a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.115. For general guidance on the nonsubstantive impact of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2021, see Section 7920.100.

See Section 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2021”).

Gov’t Code § 7920.505. “Former Section 6254 provisions”

Comment. Section 7920.505 is new. It provides a convenient means of referring to the provisions that comprised former Section 6254.

For a disposition table showing where each provision in former Section 6254 was recodified, as well as a derivation table showing the source of each provision in the CPRA Recodification of 2021, see California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

See Section 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2021”).

§ 7923.630. Rule of construction

Comment. Section 7923.630 is new. It underscores that Sections 7923.600, 7923.605, 7923.610, 7923.615, 7923.620, and 7923.625 (the six preceding provisions in this article) derive from a single subdivision and should be construed accordingly.

The purpose of this section is to provide useful information where it is particularly needed due to the high volume of matters involving the law enforcement exemption to the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”). Courts and others interpreting the CPRA should not draw any inferences from the failure to include similar statutory language elsewhere.

See Section 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2021”); see also Section 7920.100 (nonsubstantive reform).

Fish & Game Code § 2584 (amended). Remedy for actionable violation

Comment. Section 2584 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive reorganization of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The amendment also eliminates gendered pronouns, makes other technical changes, and corrects a cross-reference to subdivision (d) of former Government Code Section 6252, which became obsolete when subdivision (d) was relabeled as subdivision (e). Compare 1988 Cal. Stat. ch. 1059, § 4 (original version of Section 2584, which cross-refers to “public records, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 6252 of the Government Code”) with 1981 Cal. Stat. ch. 968, § 1 (version of former Gov’t Code § 6252 in place when Section 2584 was added to the codes); see also 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 620, § 2 (relabeling definition of “public records” as subdivision (e)); 2015 Cal. Stat. ch. 537, § 20 (version of former Gov’t Code § 6252 repealed by CPRA Recodification Act of 2021); Section 7920.530 (continuing former Gov’t Code § 6252(e)’s definition of “public records”).

Food & Agric. Code § 46014.1 (amended). Registration and other procedures relating to products certified as organic

Comment. Section 46014.1 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive reorganization of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

Food & Agric. Code § 71089 (amended). Confidentiality and disclosure of records of California Rice Commission

Comment. Section 71089 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive reorganization of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

Gov’t Code § 3105 (amended). Oath or affirmation of disaster service worker

Comment. Section 3105 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive recodification of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 2017 (2019).

The section is also amended to eliminate gendered pronouns.

Gov’t Code § 6204.1 (amended). Noncompliance with Secretary of State’s written notice and demand for record

Comment. Section 6527 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive reorganization of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The section is also amended to make technical changes.

Gov’t Code § 8201.5 (amended). Application for appointment and commission as notary public

Comment. Section 8201.5 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive recodification of the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”). See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The amendment also eliminates gendered pronouns and corrects a cross-reference to subdivision (b) of former Section 6252, which became obsolete when subdivision (b) was relabeled as subdivision (a). Compare 1969 Cal. Stat. ch. 1313, § 1 (original version of Section 8201.5, which cross-refers to “a local agency, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 6252”) with 1968 Cal. Stat. ch. 1473, § 39 (version of former Section 6252 in place when Section 8201.5 was added to the codes); see also 2004 Cal. Stat. ch. 937, § 1 (relabeling definition of “local agency” as subdivision (a)); 2015 Cal. Stat. ch. 537, § 20 (version of former Section 6252 repealed by CPRA Recodification Act of 2021); Section 7920.510 (continuing former Section 6252(a)’s definition of “local agency”).

Gov’t Code § 8585 (amended). Office of Emergency Services

Comment. Section 8585 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive reorganization of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The section is also amended to eliminate gendered pronouns and make other technical changes.

Gov’t Code § 12019.45 (amended). Grant application form

Comment. Section 12019.45 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive reorganization of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The section is also amended to make technical changes.

Gov’t Code § 12172.5 (amended). Role of Secretary of State

Comment. Section 12172.5 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive reorganization of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The section is also amended to make technical changes.

Gov’t Code § 12419.10 (amended). Offsets

Comment. Section 12419.10 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive reorganization of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The section is also amended to make a technical change.

Gov’t Code § 12525 (amended). Report to Attorney General on death of person in custody of law enforcement agency or state or local correctional facility

Comment. Section 12525 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive recodification of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The amendment also corrects a cross-reference to subdivision (d) of former Section 6252, which became obsolete when subdivision (d) was relabeled as subdivision (e). Compare 1992 Cal. Stat. ch. 529, § 1 (amending Section 12525 to cross-refer to “public records within the meaning of subdivision (d) of Section 6252”) with 1991 Cal. Stat. ch. 181, § 1 (version of former Section 6252 in place when Section 12525 was amended to cross-refer to “public records within the meaning of subdivision (d) of Section 6252”); see also 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 620, § 2 (relabeling definition of “public records” as subdivision (e)); 2015 Cal. Stat. ch. 537, § 20 (version of former Section 6252 repealed by CPRA Recodification Act of 2021); Section 7920.530 (continuing former Section 6252(e)’s definition of “public records”).

In addition, the amendment corrects cross-references to former Sections 6256 and 6257. Those sections were repealed in 1998 (see 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 620, §§ 7, 10). Most of their substance was continued in newly added Section 6253, which also continued the pertinent part of the previous version of Section 6253. See 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 620, § 5; Gov. Reorg. Plan No. 1 of 1991, § 7. Pursuant to the CPRA Recodification Act of 2021, Section 6253 has in turn been repealed and recodified in Sections 7922.500-7922.545.

Gov’t Code § 15570.42 (amended). Regulations establishing procedures and guidelines to access public records of Department of Tax and Fee Administration

Comment. Section 15570.42 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive recodification of the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”). See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The amendment also corrects a cross-reference to “Section 6253.” When Section 15570.42 was enacted in 2017, it was apparently modeled on Section 15652. It closely tracked the language of that section, including the cross-reference to “Section 6253.” Compare 2017 Cal. Stat. ch. 16, § 5 with 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 1049, § 2. However, Section 15652’s cross-reference to “Section 6253” was obsolete because former Section 6253 was amended and renumbered as Section 6253.4 in 1998 (see 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 620, § 4; see also Section 15652 Comment). Pursuant to the CPRA Recodification Act of 2021, Section 6253.4 has in turn been repealed and recodified as Article 1 of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 10 of Title 1 (Sections 7922.630-7922.640). That article is now the proper cross-reference to include in Sections 15652 and 15570.42; it contains the CPRA material on adoption of regulations.

Gov’t Code § 15650 (amended). “Public record”

Comment. Section 15650 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive recodification of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The amendment also corrects a cross-reference to subdivision (d) of former Section 6252, which became obsolete when subdivision (d) was relabeled as subdivision (e). Compare 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 1049, § 2 (original version of Section 15650, which cross-refers to “any public record as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 6252”) with 1994 Cal. Stat. ch. 1010, § 136 (version of former Section 6252 in place when Section 15650 was enacted); see also 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 620, § 2 (relabeling definition of “public records” as subdivision (e)); 2015 Cal. Stat. ch. 537, § 20 (version of former Section 6252 repealed by CPRA Recodification Act of 2021); Section 7920.530 (continuing former Section 6252(e)’s definition of “public records”).

Gov’t Code § 15652 (amended). Regulations establishing procedures and guidelines to access public records of State Board of Equalization

Comment. Section 15652 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive recodification of the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”). See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The amendment also corrects a cross-reference to “Section 6253.” When Section 15652 was added to the codes by 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 1049, § 2, the CPRA material on adoption of regulations was located in former Section 6253 (see Gov. Reorg. Plan No. 1 of 1991, § 70). Shortly afterwards, former Section 6253 was amended and renumbered as Section 6253.4 (see 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 620, § 4, which became operative on Jan. 1, 1999). Pursuant to the CPRA Recodification Act of 2021, Section 6253.4 has in turn been repealed and recodified as Article 1 of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 10 of Title 1 (Sections 7922.630-7922.640). That article is now the proper cross-reference; it contains the CPRA material on adoption of regulations.

Gov’t Code § 53753 (amended). Notice, protest, and hearing requirements for levy of new or increased assessment

Comment. Section 53753 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive reorganization of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The section is also amended to eliminate gendered pronouns and make another technical change.

Gov’t Code § 60201 (amended). Destruction or disposition of record by legislative body of district

Comment. Section 60201 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive recodification of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 207 (2019).

The amendment also corrects a cross-reference to subdivision (f) of former Section 6252, which became obsolete when subdivision (f) was relabeled as subdivision (g). Compare 2004 Cal. Stat. ch. 362, § 1 (amending Section 60201 to cross-refer to “a ‘writing’ as defined by subdivision (f) of Section 6252”) with 2002 Cal. Stat. ch. 1073, § 1.5 (version of former Section 6252 in place when Section 60201 was amended to cross-refer to “a ‘writing’ as defined by subdivision (f) of Section 6252”); see also 2004 Cal. Stat. ch. 937, § 1 (relabeling definition of “writing” as subdivision (g)); 2015 Cal. Stat. ch. 537, § 20 (version of former Section 6252 repealed by CPRA Recodification Act of 2021); Section 7920.545 (continuing former Section 6252(g)’s definition of “writing”).

Gov't Code § 65913.4 (amended). Streamlined, ministerial approval process for development application

Comment. Section 65913.4 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive reorganization of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 207 (2019).

The section is also amended to make technical changes, including some such changes that were enacted by 2020 Cal. Stat. ch. 370, § 178 (SB 1371) but chaptered out by 2020 Cal. Stat. ch. 194, § 1.5 (AB 831).

Gov't Code § 66024 (amended). Judicial action or proceeding contending that development fee is special tax

Comment. Section 66024 is amended to reflect nonsubstantive recodification of the California Public Records Act. See California Public Records Act Clean-Up, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 207 (2019).

The amendment also corrects a cross-reference to "Section 6257." That cross-reference became obsolete when former Section 6257 (1981 Cal. Stat. ch. 968, § 3.5) was repealed by 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 620, § 10. At that time, the substance of former Section 6257 was relocated to newly-added Section 6253 (see 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 620, § 5). Pursuant to the CPRA Recodification Act of 2021, Section 6253 has in turn been repealed and recodified; the fee-related material from former Section 6257 is now located in Section 7922.530(a).

Stat. ch. 1057, § 1 (original version of Section 1439, which cross-refers to “a public record within the meaning of subdivision (d) of Section 6252 of the Government Code”) with 1970 Cal. Most of their substance was continued in newly added Government Code Section 6253, which also continued the pertinent part of the previous version of Government Code Section 6253. See 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 968, § 3.1) was repealed by 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 620, § 7. At that time, the substance of former Government Code Section 6256 was relocated with revisions to newly-added Government Code Section 6253 (see 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 620, § 5). Pursuant to the CPRA Recodification Act of 2021, Government Code Section 6253 has in turn been repealed and recodified; the notification procedures and time limits from former Government Code Section 6256 are now located in Government Code Section 7922.535(a).

Withdrawn Comments

The Comments for the following provisions in the recommendation on California Public Records Act Clean-Up: Conforming Revisions are withdrawn:

Health & Safety Code § 127673. The current version of Section 127673 does not cross-refer to the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”). Consequently, there is no conforming revision of that section in AB 474 and no need for a corresponding Comment.

Penal Code § 290.46 (as amended by 2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 423, § 57). By its own terms, this version of Section 290.46 would be repealed on January 1, 2022. The CPRA recodification in Assembly Bill 473 (Chau) would not become operative until January 1, 2023. Consequently, there is no conforming revision of Section 290.46 (as amended by 2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 423, § 57) in AB 474 and no need for a corresponding Comment. If the sunset date for that version of Section 290.46 is extended, a conforming revision may become necessary and the Commission will take steps to ensure that this is handled appropriately.

Public Contract Code § 20665.24. This section is scheduled to be repealed on January 1, 2022, pursuant to Public Contract Code Section 20665.33. Because that precedes the operative date for the CPRA recodification, there is no conforming revision of Section 20665.24 in AB 474 and no need for a corresponding Comment. If the sunset date for the provision is extended, a conforming revision may become necessary and the Commission will take steps to ensure that this is handled appropriately.

Public Contract Code § 20919.24. This section is scheduled to be repealed on January 1, 2022, pursuant to Public Contract Code Section 20919.33. Because that precedes the operative date for the CPRA recodification, there is no conforming revision of Section 20919.24 in AB 474 and no need for a corresponding Comment. If the sunset date for the provision is extended, a conforming revision may become necessary and the Commission will take steps to ensure that this is handled appropriately.
